

Moderator authority is derived from active membership in the relevant society. `system_admin` is the only global elevated role.